

BIAC Annual Conference Award Nominations

Annually, BIAC recognizes those individuals and organizations demonstrating an outstanding contribution to our organization and to the field of brain injury. BIAC will be recognizing outstanding individuals during the Annual Conference on March 17, 2023.

Nominations can be submitted using our online portal or written nominations should include the nominee's full name, address and phone number, along with your reason(s) for nomination. Please keep submission to one page and be sure to include your name and phone number. All nominations will be reviewed and winners selected by the BIAC Governance Committee.

Nominations must be submitted to the BIAC Governance Committee c/o Julie Peters no later than Friday, February 17th. Nominations should include your name and phone number, the nominee's full name, address, phone number and your reason(s) for nomination. Nominations may be submitted in three ways:

- Online by using this link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/TSRJYJN>
- By mail to BIAC, 200 Day Hill Road, Ste. 250, Windsor, CT 06095
- Emailed to Julie Peters at jpeters@biact.org.

Nominate Someone Today!

Sarah Raskin Advocacy Award. Awarded to an individual or organization who demonstrates outstanding effort that has resulted in the increase of public awareness of brain injury and prevention (This was renamed in 2023 and Sarah Raskin will be the first recipient in 2023.)

Catherine Bontke Memorial Award. Awarded to a professional who has made a significant contribution to the field of brain injury through clinical services or research.

Brain Injury Service Award. Awarded to an individual or organization whose outstanding effort has broadened community services available to individuals who have sustained a brain injury.

Community Service Award. Presented to those whose community service has furthered the cause of brain injury survivors, their families, and caregivers.

Education & Prevention Award. Awarded to an individual or organization whose outstanding effort has resulted in the increase of public awareness of brain injury and prevention and/or broadened community services available to individuals who have sustained a brain injury.

Media Award. Presented to those in the media whose efforts have furthered the cause of brain injury survivors, their families, and caregivers.

Partnership Award. Awarded to an individual or organization for outstanding support of BIAC events and promotion of brain injury awareness and prevention in Connecticut's communities.

Public Policy Award. Awarded to an individual or organization supporting legislation/public policy that promotes the prevention or treatment of brain injury or increases the quality of life for persons who have sustained a brain injury.

Volunteer of the Year. Awarded to an individual for outstanding service to BIAC through his or her volunteer efforts.

Ayers Distinguished Service Award. Determined by the Board of Directors for service on Board of Directors.

President's Award. BIAC's Highest award, determined by the BIAC Board of Directors.

For a list of past recipients, click here.